

Curriculum Vitae

Jillian Mary Mitchell

41 Fenay Lane

Huddersfield

HD5 8UN

UK

+441484 301510

07711409250

jillianmarytomory@hotmail.co.uk

DOB 6/2/48

Qualifications

| | |
|---|------|
| PhD in Classics, University of Wales, Trinity Saint David | 2017 |
| MA in Classics, Open University | 2008 |
| BSc in Social Sciences, Open University | 1999 |
| Postgraduate Certificate in Community Education, Moray House Institute of Education, Edinburgh | 1992 |
| Associate of the Library Association (UK) | 1974 |
| Postgraduate Diploma in Librarianship, College of Librarianship, Wales, University of Wales | 1971 |
| Master of Arts in History (2.2), University of Aberdeen | 1970 |

Career

1992-2006 Worked in a variety of posts with older people both in Day Care settings (1992-2000) and in Residential settings (2001-2006)

1986-90 Owner of Bookshop in Edinburgh

1972-85 I worked for three English Local Authority Systems as both a Law Librarian and a Community Librarian

Voluntary Work

I retired in 2006 and since then apart from academic work have had various volunteer roles. The main ones of these are:

| | |
|--|--------------|
| Volunteer Events Organiser, Almondbury Library, Huddersfield | 2015 to date |
| Volunteer Guide at York Minster | 2007 to date |
| Volunteer Case Worker for SSAFA (Forces Charity) | 2001 to date |

Other Information

In 2009 I started my PhD entitled "The Religious World of Quintus Aurelius Symmachus". Between then and 2017 I have given ten conference papers and had two articles published. I will be giving a paper at the Classical Association Conference in April 2018, in Leicester, England.

Current Project

Writing a biography of Quintus Aurelius Symmachus (c340-402 CE), the subject of my PhD thesis dissertation.